Naruto

This is his all-time favorite Anime!

It is a show about a young ninja named Naruto Uzumaki and his biggest dream is becoming the strongest Ninja and the leader of his village, known as the "Hokage". The series introduces various fighting techniques, including martial arts and mysterious abilities, to accomplish missions and protect their villages. When Corey was growing up, he and his little brother would get up every Saturday morning and watch the latest episode and impersonate/roleplay all the other ninjas fighting abilities.
